Read a new book and make a map (digital or hand drawn) of important places where the story takes place. Label with the reason why each place is significant. Bring it in on Meet Your Teacher Day to be displayed.

Create a graph on poster paper of how much time you spend doing an activity each week. It could be how much you watch TV, spend outdoors, reading, or something else you enjoy. Bring your poster in on Meet Your Teacher Day to be displayed!

Take a picture in front of a national or historical monument and share it to Mrs. Morris (kmorris@penryn.org).

Volunteer your time to help someone in need. Take a photo of what you decided, and include a short description of the activity and why it was beneficial. Bring it in on Meet Your teacher Day to be displayed.

Create a weekly podcast about your summer and share it with Mrs. Morris (kmorris@penryn.org). Activities, Trips, or Day in the Life.

Technology Blackout from Sun up to Sun Down!
No technology including gaming systems, phones, tv, and any electronic device.

Read a new book and create a playlist of 7-10 songs that would represent your book.

Create and film a video or dance routine that teaches others about a complex academic idea and share it with Mrs. Morris (kmorris@penryn.org). (Click button for ideas)

Watch a Musical.

Read a Reading Olympics book. Then create and share a Kahoot game about the book with Mrs. Morris (kmorris@penryn.org). (Click button for book list)

Make a collage that represents your Summer with Boo! On a piece of paper (or canvas) at least 8.5 x 11, glue or paste different elements (cut outs from magazines, pictures, words, fabric, foil, etc) to create a visual representation of all or part of your summer. Try to fill the entire page, so there is no blank space showing. Bring it in on Meet Your Teacher Day!
