Create a solar oven! Record temperatures as you cook items (cookie dough, egg, hot dog). Create graphs and a visual display for Meet Your Teacher Day. You can even bring in your oven!* Ensure cooked items are safe to consume.

Make a Mini-Me!
Measure your body from top of head to floor and from shoulder to shoulder. Then scale the body down to recreate yourself in miniature form. Bring in your mini-me with your work (applying the scale factor) on Meet Your Teacher Day!

Watch the first presidential debate from June 27th. Talk with your family about which candidate you think did a better job in the debate. What did you agree with? What did you disagree with?

Volunteer your time to help someone in need. Take a photo of what you decided and include a short description of the activity and why it was beneficial. Bring it in on Meet Your teacher Day!

Create a weekly podcast about your summer and share it with Mrs. Morris (kmorris@penryn.org). Activities, Trips, or Day in the Life.

Technology Blackout from Sun up to Sun Down!
No technology including gaming systems, phones, tv, and any electronic device.

Create an Instagram post from a character in a book that you read this summer. Write a letter from the voice of the same character. The letter should be written to another character in the book, explaining their actions throughout the novel.

Create and film a video or dance routine that teaches others about a complex academic idea and share it with Mrs. Morris (kmorris@penryn.org). (Click button for ideas)

Watch a Musical.

Read a Reading Olympics book. Then create and share a Kahoot game about the book with Mrs. Morris (kmorris@penryn.org). (Click button for book list)

Make a collage that represents your Summer with Boo! On a piece of paper (or canvas) at least 8.5 x 11, glue or paste different elements (cut outs from magazines, pictures, words, fabric, foil, etc) to create a visual representation of all or part of your summer. Try to fill the entire page, so there is no blank space showing. Bring it in on Meet Your Teacher Day!
